

Southeast Regional Learning Community Consortium Planning Summit Proposal Form

Educational Support Services is organizing a regional conference to provide learning community coordinators and faculty the opportunity to collaborate, share, and learn strategies for teaching in a learning community program. The goal of this conference is to provide all who work with learning communities with various approaches to take advantage of common classes and interests their students share to enhance instruction and learning.

Programs will be 45 minute sessions to be conducted as you see fit (presentation, interactive activity, panel discussion, etc.). You are encouraged to collaborate if appropriate. Please submit a program proposal by including the following information to Ruthie Blake Payne at blakerl@auburn.edu by April 22, 2011. You will be contacted in late April regarding your proposal selection. For questions, please contact Ruthie Blake Payne at 334-844-5721 or blakerl@auburn.edu
