CONFERENCE REPORT

The conference “Problems in Real Analysis” was held July 11-13, 1994 at the conference center of Łódź University, Łódź, Poland. The conference was organized Władysław Wilczyński (head of the conference), Marek Balcerzak (secretary) and Jacek Hejduk (secretary) and was financed by Łódź University. The Exchange editorial board wishes to thank the committee members, as well as Dorota Rogowska, an unofficial secretary, for the splendid job of organizing all aspects of the conference. We wish to acknowledge their efforts as well as the financial support of Łódź University.

The conference featured invited fifty-minute addresses by:

Krzysztof Ciesielski (Morgantown, West Virginia)

Clifford Weil (East Lansing, Michigan)

Lev Bukovský (Košice, Slovakia)

Jack Brown (Auburn, Alabama)

as well as twenty-nine twenty-minute contributed talks. Social highlights included the banquet on July 19.
